FISH CHOLERA.

[illegible] EXCITEMENT IN MILWAUKEE REGARDING THE QUALITY OF LAKE FISH

MILWAUKEE, Wis, May 14—The fish which inhabit the murky waters of our river are suffering with an epidemic which generally proves fatal, and on the surface of the water may be seen thousands of dead minnows and suckers. The bodies of the dead are covered with spots of a yellowish hue, which, upon examination, are found to be alive with animalculae. Each of these fish becomes soft and pulpy almost as soon as the air strikes it and yields to the touch like so much butter. An examination of some of the fish exposed for sale in market this morning disclosed the fact that they were diseased. The blubber was found to be putrid, and living animalculae were counted by hundreds in the flesh. Further examination proves that two thirds of the fish exposed for sale were diseased. Accordingly this afternoon, chief of police Beck, acting under the direction of the health department, dispatched a body of policemen to the different markets, and ordered fish mongers not to sell any more fish at present. They protested indignantly against the order, but were obliged to destroy the stock they had on hand and retire. Members of the health board ascribe the disease to an imperfect system of sewerage, which fills the rivers with the refuse matter and garbage of the city, and pervades the water. There are no signs as yet of the malady in the lake fish

AN INCIDENT IN THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF COMMONS—Just as the Speaker was putting the question a tremendous brogue was heard from an obscure corner of the House. All eyes were turned in that direction. The voice came from Major O Gorman, the Home Rule member for Waterford, who proved his consistency by repudiating even English gold. He is a huge mountain of a man, and his rich, oily accents gave emphasis to his words. He said he need not change his sex and become a Cassandra in order to prophesy that if Irish railways were made over to the English Government, every Irishman now employed on them would be displaced by Englishmen, and told to "go to hell or Connaught." This startled the Speaker, who told the Major that such language was not parliamentary. The Major, however, insisted that it was a well-known historical phrase which it certainly is, and that, in any case it was not so bad as Mr Smollett calling Mr Gladstone a "trickster." Not long ago the Speaker challenged Mr Bernal Osborne for quoting Sheridan's "damned good natured friend."—London Cor N Y Times, May 2d

A WARNING VOICE FROM BUTLER'S DISTRICT—A special dispatch from Boston of May 12th, to the Chicago Tribune says:

The opposition to Butler is already working, and to-day the Salem Gazette, the leading paper in his district, has a long editorial reviewing the revulsion of feeling in the district, and concludes as follows: "These are among the prominent causes that have produced an unmistakable change in the opinions of the people of this district regarding a public man whom they once upheld with a surprising degree of unanimity. Among all classes and conditions of the people, this change of sentiment is manifest and the only thing that will prevent the nomination of a new man will be the failure of the public mind to unite upon a candidate in opposition. Of this failure there may be great liability, but in all other aspects of the case, the public are ripe for a change, and we are confident that the correctness of this view will be generally recognized by all careful observers of public sentiment."

ASTOUNDING PLAGIARISM.—The New York Graphic makes the charge that plagiarism is becoming of daily occurrence, especially in our periodical literature, and brings forward two notable instances. The first of these is a long illustrated article on the stage printed in the April number of Harper's Monthly, signed by Olive Logan, which is a literal translation from a well known French work entitled "Envers du Theatre," by M Moynet, with the exception that some of the phrases are Americanized and American plays are substituted for French ones. Even the cuts are pilfered. The second instance is an article in the New York Observer on "The Tireless Brain," by J. R. McDonald, which is taken almost bodily from the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table." It is highly probable that both Mr McDonald and Miss Logan were absent minded when they committed these thefts, but people troubled with such mental lapses should not make choice of works so well known for the gratification of their little idiosyncrasies.

NO MORE PARTY JUDGES FOR IOWA.—A Des Moines dispatch of May 12th says: The United States Circuit Court met yesterday in this city. Justice Miller of the Supreme Court is here. The docket is unusually large. The lawyers of this judicial district had a meeting in this city to-day and passed resolutions favoring the election of Judges regardless of parties, and pledging themselves to support the best man at all times. This is the beginning of a movement to secure Judges outside and independent of political conventions.

The Republican party will ask no more of President Grant. He has served it as long as any President was ever called upon to serve any party. The Republican party would not yield to the dictation of those few men who demanded that, for the first time in the case of President Grant, an executive who had done good service should not be renominated. But it will yield to the custom which has fixed eight years as the period for which one man may serve in the Executive chair.—Utica Herald (Rep.)

The cry that the OREGONIAN is really working in the interests of Grover so monotonously sounded by the Bulletin, puts us in mind of the rogue's cry of "stop thief." That paper is making sensible but of course not a vindictive fight against both the old ring tickets.—Salem Record.

SAN FRANCISCO May 2[illegible]—Suit will be commenced to day in the Fifteenth District Court by Crown Point, Savage, Gould & Curry, Hale & Norcross, Chollar Potosi, Imperial, Ophir, [illegible] and Yellow Jacket mining companies against Sutro et als and Sutro Tunnel Company to cancel agreements between them in regard to the building of Sutro tunnel and the payment of a stipulated royalty to relieve plaintiffs from the burden of paying said royalty. The ground of action is the alleged total failure of the defendants to perform any part of their agreement or do any act for which royalty was to be paid. Plaintiffs claim that all work which has been done is not more than one tenth part of what was to be performed and is entirely on defendants grounds and for their benefit alone. It cannot ever be of advantage to most of the plaintiffs who have reached a depth below Sutro tunnel and the balance are nearly down to it. Plaintiffs further say the time for completing the tunnel has long since expired and that the agreement contains an option on the part of plaintiffs to hold null and void provided defendants did not commence and prosecute the work as stated in the contract, and further that from the time of failure of defendants they have elected to rescind, and defendants knew the fact

Arrival of Vasquez in San Francisco.

Sheriff Rowland and party arrived on the steamer Senator at an early hour this morning, with Vasquez in charge. They were driven immediately to the City Hall in a hack. At the prison Vasquez was placed in his cell and his shackles removed. News of the arrival soon spread abroad, and a large crowd collected at the City Hall to interview him. After breakfast Chief Cockrill and Sheriff Rowland took him to Bradley & Rulofson's gallery where his likeness was taken. They went on foot, but as a great crowd soon collected he was taken back in a hack followed by a multitude of men. Visitors were admitted to see him, and he received them with smiles and was disposed to talk. He fears lynching in Monterey county, and says he desires nothing but a new trial and a fair one. He still persists that he never shed the blood of any man in all his raids, and don't believe that Greek George betrayed him, but says some of his countrymen must have done so. Says he was foolish to remain so long near Los Angeles, but feared Morse and party had got south of him to cut off his intended flight into Mexico. He suffers much yet from the wound in his breast. The officers will start for Monterey county with him this afternoon

The crowd at the City Hall to see Vasquez is largely augmented, and those who are admitted stand waiting in double lines. Police officers armed with printed protests against the proposed reduction of their salaries, are stationed along each line soliciting signatures from each visitor, and it is popularly considered that signing is the price of admission to see the robber chief.

Interior California

VISALIA May 26—At Fresno on Friday last Gustavus DeYoung and wife procured a team from Charles Fleming which they drove to Centerville, a distance of 18 miles, returning in time for the 2 A. M train in which they came to Tulare. The next day a dispatch was sent by Fleming to DeYoung demanding $150 for damages done to the team, saying that if it was not paid he would stop them on a criminal charge of cruel treatment to animals. DeYoung made no reply to this. On Sunday the Deputy Sheriff of Fresno county came to Tulare with a warrant for his arrest. DeYoung wished to visit this city, and persuaded the officer to accompany him here in a carriage he obtained at Tulare. The party arrived here about 3 P M Sunday. While the officer was talking in the bar-room of the Exchange DeYoung jumped into his buggy and drove furiously through town and out on the Centerville road. He was followed by three local officers, overhauled about three miles from the city and put under arrest for violating the city ordinance against fast driving. He was handcuffed and relieved of a brace of six shooters and lodged in a cell in the county jail. It is said that he made threats against any officer who should attempt to arrest him. At 10 P M he was taken before Judge Clarke on a writ of habeas corpus and gave $500 bonds to appear at 10 o clock next morning. On his appearance Judge Clarke decided that he was illegally held and dismissed him. He was then arrested on a warrant issued by Recorder [illegible] and after a few hours argument it was discovered that we have no ordinance under which a person can be arrested for fast driving, it having never been published nor signed by the Mayor. DeYoung was again released, and the officer from Fresno immediately seized him and forced him into the jail. The officer was going direct to Fresno, but the prisoner prayed for the protection of the Recorder, who admitted him to bail in the sum of $100 to appear in Fresno Friday next at 10 A M. DeYoung says that while he was out looking about town his wife, in company with another lady, also went walking. When he returned he was informed she had started to Tulare, some one having told her that it was his desire she should do so. Upon hearing this he was much excited, thinking there was foul play. His team, which had been stabled by some one, had been brought out just at this critical time and was standing by the hotel. He jumped into a buggy and pursued a carriage which he supposed contained his wife. When he discovered his error he turned back, and was within a mile of town when the officers met him. He admits being drunk, but says it was caused by frenzy. He says the team at Fresno was not worth $[illegible] and thinks the whole a blackmailing scheme on the part of gamblers. He proposes to commence an action for damages and for false imprisonment

BAKER COUNTY [illegible] FOR THE [illegible] OF OREGON—THE DAVENPORT FOR CONGRESS—[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] THE INDEPENDENTS IN THE [illegible]—THE [illegible] [illegible]

BAKER CITY, May [illegible] 1874

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The unexpected enthusiasm created here for the Independent cause by the speeches of Messrs Davenport and Campbell is still [illegible]. The people here are talking. First they [illegible], then they talked and talked, and then they openly applauded the champions of the Independent ticket. A noted Democratic politician took the writer aside yesterday and actually said: "What does this mean? I sat yesterday where the three candidates for gubernatorial honors addressed the multitude and I could see by the facial expression of the crowd that a large proportion of them were in sympathy with the Independents. There is something in this I do not understand. There is a silent something moving the people." My response was: "Yes, there seems to be a pretty general feeling that we need a change in the administration of national and State affairs. The people are beginning to see this necessity and they propose to demand it on next election day."

Davenport's quiet, easy, logical and unimpassioned discourse set the people to thinking. Campbell's forcible, eloquent, witty and brilliant speech has set them to action. The cry is "where are your Independent tickets? I am going to vote for Davenport and Campbell and all the Independents now running in this county."

We will give you [illegible] as many Independent votes as I anticipated two months ago.

Do anything you can to honorably help Campbell and Davenport, and to beat Foster and Brown and you will secure the approbation of the people here.

I will save the Republicans the humiliation of referring to their horse jockey, Jim Tolman. He and Lafe ought to be on the same ticket—twin brothers of Ring nomination, twin brothers of incompetency, twin tools of party—put up for sacrifice by their designing masters.

You all know what Grover's speech was here—his speech of two years ago with a supplement.

I hear that Grant county is all right for the cause of reform and progress. They will elect their county ticket sure. Grant, Wasco and Umatilla for the Independents, with hundreds of votes from Baker and Union ought to inspire the Independents of the Willamette with renewed vigor. Work and vote and the cause is ours. Vox Populi Vox Dei.

I expect to be with you at Portland when the grand jollification over the Independent triumphs in this election shall take place.

Democrats and Republicans in Jackson and Douglas counties shaking hands across the bloody chasm to beat the Independents has helped us much here. It demonstrates that the issues of those noted parties are dead and they will do anything for spoils. But the Independents will spoil them on election day. This unholy alliance proves all that Campbell says, the issue between them is the spoils of office. A man who cannot perceive this must be narrower between the eyes than Jim Tolman. And as ever

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Independent inquires if Mr County Clerk Harris lobbied for the fee bill. I can assure him that he did; that he was at the seat of Government a considerable part of the session lobbying for that bill and that Harris and Murphy, the Clerk of Marion county, when the bill was worked through the Legislature, in company carried it to the Governor for signature instead of having it to go there through official and regular channels

POSTED

THE COMING CAMPAIGN IN IOWA.—The political campaign in Iowa this year will be one of unusual interest. For years it has been the custom of the Republicans, conscious of their superior strength, to hold their nominating convention first, leaving their opponents to follow and make the most of their shortcomings. This custom has been completely reversed. The anti-monopolists, as the opposition party call themselves, have taken the lead with a boldness which has considerably disconcerted the Republicans, who after a good deal of hesitation have placed their Convention after that of their opponents. The Burlington Hawk-Eye, one of the most intelligent and outspoken Republican journals of the State, says the anti monopolists, encouraged by their unexpected success last year, and by the apathy of the Republicans, will enter the campaign with a systematic organization and a feeling that victory is fairly within their reach. While not predicting in any way the result the same journal remarks: "We may count pretty certainly on a lively campaign and one too in which there will be more discussion of principles and less reliance upon party watchwords than we have had for many years"

A SUMNER RELIC.—[illegible] Ashley publishes a letter denying that he furnished Senator Sumner's suppressed speech for publication or that he even knows who did furnish it. He adds: "Unquestionably the speech would not have been published by the men who maligned Mr Sumner while living, and shed hypocritical tears over his grave when dead. While they denounce its publication as an act of perfidy, they do not care to deny the truthfulness of the facts charged in the speech. Gentlemen who express such virtuous indignation over what they are pleased to call a betrayal by Mr Sumner's friends of his confidence could make themselves vastly more interesting to the public by stating whether they admit or deny the truthfulness of the allegations so carefully prepared and deliberately charged by Mr Sumner. It will be time enough to discuss the point whether Mr Sumner's confidence has been violated when his recognized friends raise that question."

THE NEXT DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.—They have got hold of a pretty large sized root at the West and appear to be considerably frightened at it. It comes in the shape of a rumor from Washington that the recent sudden love feast at the Manhattan Club in this city was the first step in a subtle conspiracy of the Democrats to nominate Gen Grant for the Presidency in 1876 on an anti-inflation platform, claiming him as an original Democrat. The Cleveland Leader detects a suspicious leaning toward such a plot in the published speeches of the gathering, and gives this caution to those who may be inclined to scoff at the rumored plan: "Whoever feels disposed to say that it is chimerical and absurd should remember the nomination of Horace Greeley by the Democrats at Baltimore in 1872."

THE WISCONSIN RAILWAY CONTEST

[illegible]

MADISON May [illegible]—A letter was published in the State Journal of this [illegible] from Senator Matt Carpenter, written in response to many letters in the [illegible] of the constitutionality of the railroad law, from which we take the following extract:

"The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the fourth Legislature regulate the tariff of rates to be charged upon the railroads of the State for the transfer of passengers and freight. The answer to this question depends upon the legal character of the railroad and the relations which exist between the State and the railroad corporations, or in other words whether railroads are public property or mere private property, which the corporations are [illegible] [illegible] of the State. If the railroads are mere private property, owned by the corporations [illegible], then they are no more subject to legislative control than any other merely private property. If, on the other hand, the railways are public highways, then they are a part of the public domain of the State, farmed out for administration but subject to the control of the legislature like any other highway by land or water. But fortunately for the people, it is well settled that railroads are public highways and as such subject to legislative control. This question arose in the very beginning of these improvements, when the State undertook to exercise the right of eminent domain in aid of their construction. It was conceded that this could not be done unless the road when completed would be public property. A State could not take the land of its citizens against their will except for public use. This led to the [illegible] of railroads as public highways. The courts of the States, and finally the Supreme Court of the United States, has held that railroads are public highways, and may be regulated by the Legislature like other public property. Now the real case is this: The State said to the capitalists who desired to engage in the company business: We desire to have a railroad built and operated from Milwaukee to the Mississippi river. If you will advance the money necessary to build and equip the road and then operate it subject to our supervision and control, that is subject to our power at any time to alter or [illegible] the [illegible], we will take and hold the land upon which to build the road by the right of eminent domain, though you shall pay the damages assessed to the land owners, and you shall then have the monopoly of the carrying business on this road and fix your own tariff of rates, provided, however, that we will reserve the right to alter this provision in regard to rates if we shall see fit, or to repeal your charter altogether if we find it necessary to prevent you from oppressing the people in exercising the powers thus conferred upon you. This proposition is accepted, the capitalists are incorporated, the State takes and holds the land, the company improves it by building and equipping the road, and engages in the carrying business thereon. Now it is found that under this provision of the charter authorizing the company to fix its own rates, the company is guilty of oppression, and the State exercises the right it had expressly reserved, and alters this provision fixing the rates to be charged, and now it is said that for the State to do what it has expressly reserved the right to do is a violation of the understanding or contract between the State and the company."

He then quotes many decisions both in the State and United States Courts showing that railroads are subject to legislative control and are public highways. He further says that the law of last winter is constitutional and that all railway companies must obey the law as long as it is on the statutes of our State. Whether it is just or unjust remains to be seen. If it is unjust the next Legislature will repeal or modify it so that justice will be done to all parties. He is, however, strongly of the opinion that the law is just.

THE WAR BEGUN IN THE COURTS

MILWAUKEE May 1[illegible]—The first suit under the new Potter railroad law was begun here yesterday. H M Ackley and [illegible], lumber dealers, had two car loads of lumber come to Oconomowoc from Oshkosh over the Chicago & Northwestern and Chicago, Milwaukee & St Paul R. R's, the former road carrying the lumber to Watertown Junction and the latter road thence to Oconomowoc. Mr Ackley tendered in payment of the freight thirty dollars for the two cars under the new Potter law, which the Milwaukee and St Paul Company refused, demanding fifty dollars according to their tariff, and held the lumber for payment of the freight. Ackley seeks to replevin the lumber and also sues for damages for unlawful detention of the same. This is a [illegible] private suit brought by a citizen under the provision of the Potter law without the knowledge of the State authorities. It will be made a test case, and as such great importance attaches to it. Finches, Lynde & Miller of this city are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

The railroad State Commissioners have issued circulars fixing their rates on the various roads in accordance with the Potter bill.

PUBLIC OPINION

The inflation fever is in keeping with the political corruption which prevails at Washington, and for the credit of our country both should be cured.—San Francisco Alta California (Rep.)

The financial question and Grant's veto has very essentially demoralized general political organizations. It will take some time to gather up the fragments and see where they belong.—Burlington (Iowa) Gazette (Dem.)

The only hope of Democracy now or hereafter is that in this contest the corruptionists should hold their own till another general election is held; but the sign of the time are against them.—B[illegible]

AN EXCITING QUICKSILVER HUNT.—An Exeter correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette writes: "A quicksilver mine is said to have been discovered at Exeter. It appears that a few months ago a few boys discovered some of the metal in the rock or [illegible] [illegible] the bank of the river at Head Weir. It was suggested that the quicksilver had come there by accident or designedly placed there, but [illegible] [illegible] chemist named Hare obtained permission from the town authorities to excavate the bank, and he has just done so in the presence of the surveyor and other persons, and the result is the discovery of a large quantity of the liquid metal. Further portions have been [illegible] the direction of the bank, and [illegible] the owner of the land on the river bank."

CHICAGO.—The Swing case in Chicago [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] tests [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. The Vancouver Register says that the Olympia Bar desires the appointment of H. G. Struve, Esq, to the bench in Washington Territory. To which the Olympia Courier responds: "As Mr Struve has himself signed the petition for the reappointment of Judge Green, together with all the other lawyers of the city (except perhaps one or two), it may be safe to say that the Register's item wants corroboration."

John Canty, a sixteen year old lad of Idaho, is in jail at Boise for stealing a saddle. When he stays in forty days for the saddle he will go in for the bridle which he stole from another party, then he will have to answer the charge of taking a pair of spurs and a shotgun without the owner's leave. After all this, the horse which he rode will have to be accounted for. We should say John was on the high road to fame

The following interesting statistics are from a [illegible] of general directory for the Territory of Utah just published. The population in 1870 was [illegible]. It is now [illegible],000, an increase of over [illegible]. In 1873 there were 110,000 acres in grain and 12,000 in root crops, 2,000 in fruit and 60,000 acres in meadow. Fish culture—salmon, shad and trout—has become a business in parts of the Territory. There are 261 common schools, with an average daily attendance of 11,512 pupils. There are 200 towns and settlements in Utah

A correspondent at Chehalis, W. T., writes us that the new Court House at that place will be completed about the 20th of June, and will be one of the finest court houses in the Territory. Mr W. H. T[illegible]lor, the builder, is a fine workman and is rushing things so as to have the building ready by the Fourth of July, at which time the citizens propose to use it for a grand ball, etc. Lewis county claims to have the gayest and prettiest girls north of the Columbia, and they are expected to be out in magnificent style on that occasion

The Boise Statesman says: The finest specimen of quartz that we have seen for many a day was exhibited here by J. D. Heath, of Atlanta, and shown us by S. B. Dilley. It is from Mr Heath's lode, [illegible]. The specimen is [illegible] purchased quartz taken out of the lead at considerable depth and [illegible] all over and through with fine gold. The lead, or chimney in the lode, is a new discovery, six feet wide, by two feet thick of rich ore like the specimen. He already has 3,000 pounds of this rich rock out and it is prospected sufficiently to show a mint of money in this chimney

A letter from Lewis county, W. T., says: We have quite a large amount of tide marsh land that when dyked are very productive. Oats last year yielded from 65 to 100 bushels per acre, and weigh very heavy. Everything set out on them that is suitable to this climate succeeds finely. Weather the past four weeks has been glorious and farmers have been making the most of it. Quite a large Grange will soon be organized here. A majority of the settlers began here with little means and reclaiming the land is expensive business. Money is very scarce. Prospects are good for a large crop this year, which will help to make times easier. A grain or feed mill is very much needed. Our young cattle and dry cows have wintered well with but very few feeds, and I think they would have done very well without any. Our stock range is quite limited however, the land being timbered with the exception of the tide land. About thirty inches of rain annually and no frost you go south

THE ANDERSON SCHOOL.—Applications for entrance to the Anderson School of Natural History at Penikese number nearly 150, though not more than a third of that number can possibly be admitted. The necessary buildings have been erected, but there is very little money left to carry on the institution; it is to be earnestly hoped that many States will adopt the proposition to provide for the maintenance of two pupils by a grant of $5,000, or an annual subscription of $350. The school is to be open from July 1st to August 29th. The corps of instructors numbers about a dozen

NELLIE GRANT

HER WEDDING AND HOW [illegible] WAS [illegible]

A dispatch from Washington May 21 says: The wedding of Nellie Grant to Mr Sartoris took place at eleven o'clock this morning in the East room, Rev Dr. Tiffany performing the ceremony. The East room was elaborately and beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, the center piece being a large bell composed of the choicest white blossoms. The platform was arranged at one end of the room. On this the bridal party stood, which consisted of only the bridegroom, bride and Colonel Fred Grant, the only groomsman, with eight bridesmaids. The party entered through the Blue room, escorted by President Grant, Mrs Grant and their two sons, Ulysses and Jesse. The bride wore a satin dress elaborately trimmed with point lace, with tulle veil. Her hair was adorned with orange blossoms. The dress of the groom was in the finest style, with white neck tie. The bridemaids were Misses Porter, Fish, Drexel, Dent, Porter, Conkling, Sherman and Frelinghuysen. They were dressed in white corded silk, covered with illusion, with puffs and plaitings caught up with flowers, and sashes of the same material as the dresses. Three of the ladies were distinguished by pink roses, and the other four by blue flowers.

Everything being in readiness, Rev Dr. Tiffany proceeded with the ceremony according to the form of the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the conclusion of the ceremony the family and friends presented congratulations and the band played the Wedding March. Less than 200 persons were present, including Justices of the Supreme Court, members of the Cabinet, Senators Frelinghuysen, Carpenter, Cameron, Conkling, Logan, Vice President Wilson, Speaker Blaine, General Sherman, Admiral Porter, Commander Ammen, George W Childs, A. S. Drexel, Judge Pierrepont, General Arthur, Generals Porter and Babcock and Sir Edward Thornton and lady. Officers of the navy and army appeared in uniform.

The wedding presents were displayed in the library and were numerous, costly, and elegant. Among the most noticeable was a dessert set of eighty four pieces, from George W Childs, and a complete dinner set from A. J Drexel, of Philadelphia. The President's gift was a check for $10,000. The bridegroom's present was a beautiful collection of flowers. An elegant wedding breakfast was partaken of.

At 1 30 this afternoon the bride and groom left by special train for New York, accompanied by General Porter, Messrs Childs, Drexel, and their families. The President and Mrs Grant go to New York on Friday, and bid their daughter good bye.

BRITISH PROTECTORATE OVER FIJI ISLANDS.—A telegraphic dispatch from Melbourne, dated May 10th, says: In the treaty for the establishment of a British protectorate over the Fiji Islands it is stipulated that Great Britain shall assume all financial liabilities, pay the King $15,000 per annum, with other pensions to various native chiefs, recognize the ruling chief as owner of the lands which are to be open to settlement by foreigners within a year.

PLATFORM

Resolved, 1. That the compensation of Clerk and Sheriff of this county should be fixed salaries not exceeding, for the Sheriff $3,000 and for the Clerk $3,000 per year; that the law allowing fees to these officers taxable against the county should be repealed and their other fees should be reduced to the rates allowed under the law of 1870, such fees (except mileage of Sheriff) to be collected by the respective officers and paid into the County Treasury; that each of these officers should be allowed such number of deputies as the County Court, consisting of the Judge and Commissioners, should determine to be necessary, and such deputies should be paid out of the County Treasury salaries not exceeding $100 per month each.

2. That there is no necessity for more than one Assessor (except as tax collector) for the city and county, and the duties of each of these officers could be performed quite as well and more economically by a single officer for both city and county, the compensation for such duties to be apportioned between the city and county according to a fair estimate of the work required by each.

3. That the appropriation out of the County Treasury of moneys as salaries for jailor and janitor is a violation of law and a disregard of the interests of the people of Multnomah county, and the candidates named by this Committee for Judge and Commissioners are pledged, if elected, to discontinue such appropriations as well as all others not necessary in the administration of county affairs.

4. That the Charter of Portland should be so amended as to make the Board of Police Commissioners consist of the Mayor of the city (who should be the President of the Board) and two Commissioners appointed by the Governor, and the Commission should have power to fix the number of police officers by ordinance.

5. That we heartily approve of the exertions of our delegation in Congress in behalf of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake railroad; that we regard the building of said road as essential to the development of this city and State, and the candidates named by this Committee for the Legislature are instructed to secure, if possible, such legislation as shall give the right of way for said road through this State, and to endeavor to secure the adoption of a memorial asking Congress to aid said road.

6. That there should be passed an efficient law providing for the registration of voters to prevent fraud in election.

7. That the candidates named by this Committee for the Legislature are pledged to endeavor, if elected, to secure legislation in accordance with these resolutions and to exercise and demand the most rigid economy in all departments of the public service and to reduce taxation in every practicable way.

PLAIN TALK WITH REPUBLICANS

Every true Republican in this State desires to see L F Grover beaten in the present contest The ring at Portland, calling themselves Republicans prefer Grover to Campbell because they believe they can use the former while they have no hope of using the latter, and because they prefer party success to Independent success, under any circumstances The ring at Salem also prefer Grover, for he serves it as the tender serves the train The Portland ring know that Tolman's election is simply impossible Hence the effort to make it appear that the contest is between Grover and Tolman to secure as many Republican votes for Tolman as possible, and thus defeat Campbell and secure Grover's election That this is the true state of the case is evident from the fact that Hiram Smith received for Congress last fall only 46 per cent of the Republican vote of the State, the remainder refusing to indorse the Hipple Mitchell resolution None of this last class of Republicans will vote for Tolman, because they know that he is put forward and sustained by the same faction of the Republican party, and because the Hipple resolution still stands It is safe to say that 10 of the 46 per cent who did vote for Hi Smith will now vote the Independent ticket, leaving Tolman at best but three-eighths of the Republican vote of the State Campbell will receive the remaining five-eighths of the Republican votes on the Independent ticket Add to this the Independent vote from the Democratic ranks, at least three-eighths of the whole, and we have a safe approximation of the vote as matters now stand Assuming the aggregate vote at 26,000, the count will stand as follows, the two old parties having formerly about equal strength

Grover's vote (Democratic)		8125
Tolman's vote (Hipple-Mitchell Republicans)		4875
Campbell's vote	Republican	8125
	Democratic	4875
		13 000

These estimates are based partly on the Congressional election of last fall, and partly on reliable information from all parts of the State. Tolman will receive east of the mountains scarcely enough votes to be reported scattering We have it from every man from that section whom we meet, that the contest is between Campbell and Grover, and that Tolman is not in the count, only as he may aid in electing Grover by drawing off Republican votes from Campbell

See what a margin here is for Campbell Suppose it should turn out that we are even 3,000 votes out of the way (and that is simply impossible) in our estimate of Campbell's vote, he will be elected still Take from Campbell's vote, as here estimated, 3,000 votes, give 2,000 of them to Grover and 1,000 to Tolman, and Campbell will still be elected, or give 2,000 of them to Tolman and 1,000 to Grover, and Campbell will still be elected by a large majority, or give all of them to Tolman, and Campbell is still elected Grover is the only competitor Campbell has! That is apparent to the commonest understanding. The talk to the contrary is nothing more nor less than a device of the ring to elect Grover, since they cannot elect Tolman Anything to beat Campbell is their watchword now.

In view of these facts and figures, we ask Republicans to consider which of the two real contestants they prefer, Campbell or Grover You cannot elect Tolman, you may defeat Campbell Will you be cajoled by the power of the two rings at Portland and at Salem to throw away your votes on a man who cannot be elected, and whom nobody wishes to see elected, and thus secure the election of Grover, than which no greater affliction could befall the State, and especially the Republican party outside of these rings That Mr Campbell will be elected Governor on Monday next is with us a foregone conclusion, but we do not want those Republicans who would prefer him to Grover to be cheated out of the pleasure of voting for him under the false assumption that they must vote for Tolman to defeat Grover, when the very opposite is true—to vote for Tolman is to elect Grover Save your votes by voting the Independent ticket strait

AHA! MR CAYWOOD

Mr. Caywood is out in a card in the ring paper in regard to the matter of his fees He has got a lawyer to write his card with the greatest possible care, and tries to make it appear that he meets the statements heretofore published But he dodges the question—artfully but not successfully Instead of accepting the proposition of the Independents and going into an investigation of the accuracy of our statement of what the county pays him he resorts to the argument of bluff and offers to bet $1 000 that the total figures we give including the estimate of his fees for private services, is too large, the winning party to pay the money he wins to some charitable institution This is a miserable attempt to evade the question, which more than all other questions, interests the public of Multnomah county just at this time We did not propose to settle this controversy by gambling, and certainly we do not intend to try to settle it by gambling upon a jockeying proposition that leaves the real question untouched We challenged Mr Caywood and Mr Harris to go into a fair and square investigation of the moneys paid them out of the County Treasury, and Mr Harris makes no response, while Mr Caywood simply proposes to bet $1 000 that our estimate of what he receives from other sources is too large This is proof if other proof than the county record were needed, that the figures we published from the county books were correct

It is currently reported that the ring managers have made an estimate that they will have to cast at least 500 fraudulent votes to win this county and some put the estimate higher even than that The two offices of Clerk and Sheriff can well afford to contribute $20 000 to the bribery fund and the Custom House can add considerably to this So there is reason for the people to be vigilant

Caples the candidate put on the ring ticket to control the temperance vote of this city was royally drunk night before last

DONT BE HUMBUGGED BY THE RING

Column after column of the ring organ of this city is devoted to the purpose of trying to create the impression that the Independent ticket of this county is composed of men who are opposed to the construction of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railway Of course no sane person who will reason upon the matter for a moment will be deceived by such nonsense There could not be found in Portland enough of men to make up a ticket who are opposed to this great enterprise, if indeed there is one such person to be found

This ridiculous and absurd charge of the ring is made mainly against Judge Strong People's candidate for State Senator We here republish Judge Strong's address to the people upon that subject which disposes of the whole matter

TO THE VOTERS OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY

I am informed that efforts are being made to prejudice the public mind against me as a candidate for the State Senate by representing that I am unfavorable to the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad and that if elected to the Senate I would be hostile to that enterprise

Nothing is further from the truth I am not opposed to that road I believe its construction will be vastly beneficial to the entire State and particularly to this city and its vicinity It will facilitate the exportation of our produce the introduction of merchandise and be of incalculable advantage in promoting immigration My property is all here and I should be blind to my own interests if I opposed this road

It is said that I am attorney for the O S N Co and that it is opposed to the Salt Lake road because it will destroy its monopoly So far as the O S N Co. is concerned the men who manage its affairs are too well informed not to know that when parties are ready to build a railroad between here and the East they cannot stop them from getting a right of way over the Cascades There is no such thing as closing up the pass against competing railways When the capital is ready to put the road through it will go and those who stand in the way must get out of it or be run over

It is true that I have been attorney of the O S N Co for some time I have done their law business and they have paid me for it So far then we stand on an equal footing I make my business to practice law It is the only means I have to support myself and family and I take such business that is brought to me in the line of my profession as I can honestly attend to without reference to the religious or political faith of my clients

During my connection with the Oregon Steam Navigation Company I have never known it to interfere at all in politics or with the nomination or election of any particular man to an office The men managing the Company have belonged to different political parties So far as I know they are not hostile to the Salt Lake Railroad Company. They did oppose the taking for nothing of a large and valuable tract of their land and especially to having it taken and appropriated so that neither the O S N Co nor any other railroad company could use it long before it was known whether the Portland Dalles & Salt Lake Railroad Company would ever be able to use it or construct any road Most any one else would have done just as the O S N Co did do under the same circumstances The men managing the O S N Co have property and interests in this city much greater than their interests in the O S N Co and if we credit them with any shrewdness or regard for their own interests we must conclude that they are the friends of the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake road and not only that road but also of any other railroad which will increase the value of property in this city I believe them to be friendly to this road Whether they are or not I know that I am

I was nominated without any solicitation upon my part I did not seek the office and had I known that my name was to be used in connection with the nomination to any office I should have protested against it This is a peculiar time The public have for too many years been grievously afflicted with political leprosy Office seekers have become too numerous for the public good Office seeking is a profession Primaries and conventions are the tools with which the politician works Nominations are procured and elections secured by bribery and all sorts of corruption When the office is obtained it must be by means lawful or unlawful be made to yield an income sufficient to reimburse the expenses and secure a future lease of power What the candidate lays out in bribery and corruption to secure the office is merely a loan to be recovered of the tax payer with interest and cost of collection after the incumbent is installed in office It was under such circumstances that the people of this county without distinction of party, determined to do away with party machinery and take the nominating business into their own hands They appointed a committee to select suitable persons to run for the offices to be filled at the coming election

Having been nominated by this committee as a candidate for the State Senate I did not feel at liberty to decline though I would have preferred that some other man had been selected in my place I am heartily in sympathy with the people who have placed me in the position of a candidate and shall do all that I can properly do to secure the election of myself and all the candidates who have received their nominations in this county and judicial circuit from the same source

I stand squarely upon the platform which the committee adopted The principles there laid down are my principles

The present high rate of taxation is unnecessary and is driving capital and emigration from the State It shall be my earnest endeavor to reduce the number of officials to the lowest practicable limit to reduce fees to a reasonable compensation for the services rendered—there is no reason why work done for the public should be paid for at a higher rate than work done for individuals to make the law so plain that illegal officers cannot be appointed or illegal fees paid without the illegality being so apparent that it must at once attract attention to enforce thorough responsibility upon all intrusted with the collection and disbursement of public moneys to secure to every citizen the right to a free vote, and to make the election laws so definite that election frauds will be rendered impossible without certain detection and prompt punishment

I am under no obligation or promise to any corporation or individuals to act as a legislator in any other manner than my best judgment shall decide to be most conducive to the public good

WM STRONG

Portland May 1[illegible] 1874

But this is not all The Convention which nominated the People's Ticket unanimously adopted the following resolution on the subject

5, That we heartily approve of the exertions of our Delegation in Congress in behalf of the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad that we regard the building of said road as essential to the development of this city and State; and the candidates named by this committee for the Legislature are instructed to secure if possible, such legislation as shall give the right of way for said road through this State and to endeavor to secure the adoption of a memorial asking Congress to aid said road

It is in the face of all this evidence that the ring are accusing the People's candidates of opposing the Salt Lake Railway

But the object of this hue and cry about opposition to the railway is to divert the public mind from the enormous extravagances in county affairs that has entailed such burden of taxation upon the people The Salt Lake Railway dodge is extremely transparent, but it may serve to turn the eyes of the voters away from county affairs and that is the real object

CLOSE UP YOUR HOUSES

The People's Nominating Committee wisely recommended that business men close their houses on the day of the election and attend at the polls This should be done Their presence will prevent many fraudulent votes from being polled It will be worth 200 votes to the People's ticket for all business houses to be closed on the day of election Let there be among the gentlemen representing the principal business houses of the city an understanding to close during the election and let them attend personally at the polls It will help amazingly It is understood that the ring are now engaged in filling up the city with loose floating people who are not voters but who are expected to cast fraudulent votes next Monday and to repeat them as often as possible Such men are gone the next day after the election unless they can be arrested at the very time of their fraudulent voting They have no residence, and will not be here twenty-four hours after they have committed the crime of illegal voting And this crime cannot be committed on a very large scale except the parties concerned in it get exclusive possession of the polling places Let the citizens be present at their several precincts and see to it that the polls are not captured by bribed roughs

Judge W W Page will address the people of Rainier to day and at Astoria to morrow (Friday) evening

Republicans do not forget that a vote for Tolman is a vote for Grover This is certainly the case Independents do not be deceived into voting for any man but your own candidate for Governor and Congressman You have called them into the field, and you can now elect them

Gath who professes to be pretty well up in knowledge of the Scriptures writes to the Chicago Tribune "When the morning stars sang together the star that had the best voice was pointed at by all the other stars

It will be a relief to the country to have the President carry out the programme laid down for him in this morning's dispatches by appointing a new Secretary of the Treasury within twenty four hours

Gov Gibbs will speak to-night at the Oro Fino Theater Don't forget it

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

It is reported that there are one hundred and twenty men employed upon the State House—more than twice the number that can be profitably employed A large proportion of these men have been given employment that they may vote and common rumor hath it that after the election they will be discharged and only a sufficient number employed to make pretense of business for the Commissioners and clerks and enable them to draw their salaries up to the commencement of the rainy season The present extraordinary draft upon the fund will leave but a small amount with which to keep up the semblance of work for the balance of the season

I am aware that there is shameful precedent for this prostitution of public funds to the service of elections that the present National administration has spent millions of dollars in filling up navy yards and armories with voters just prior to an election and solely for the purpose of voting them at such election But this furnishes no justification for copying the corrupting example here In the name of fair and pure elections men of all parties should join in condemning it

THURSDAY MORNING MAY 28 1874

CITY.

STEAMER IN QUARANTINE —The report of the physicians summoned to examine the supposed case of smallpox on board the steamer John L. Stephens was of an adverse character to the releasement of the vessel from quarantine As we understand the case has been pronounced genuine smallpox by the medical gentlemen appointed to make a personal examination Yesterday morning the cabin passengers were allowed to come ashore This was permitted from the fact that the child who is pronounced to have the disease came up in the steerage and the cabin passengers had but a limited opportunity to contract the scourge It was therefore thought that the public health would not be endangered Most of the passengers who came in the steerage having been more or less exposed to the contagion, were not allowed to come on shore We understand that these passengers will all be transferred to the steamer Gussie Telfair which is moored at the lower sawmill where they will be kept for the present The child will be placed in some house remote from the populous portion of the city where it can be properly provided for If no new cases are developed after the allotted time the passengers will not be longer restrained of their liberty Meantime the steamer will be thoroughly fumigated after which she will be allowed to come alongside the wharf and discharge her freight

DR. JIM DEAD —This somewhat noted Chinese physician who has resided on the Pacific coast for many years and been a practitioner in Portland for the last seven years died on Tuesday Of the immediate causes which resulted in the demise of Dr Jim we are ignorant, but he has been in very poor health for some time, and his death was not a matter of surprise to the public. Dr Jim was held in high esteem among his countrymen by whom he was regarded as a very skillful master in the healing art But alas! he saved others himself he could not save, and quietly succumbed to the persistent and insidious attacks of disease. In his way he was a genius, and his death is sincerely lamented by his surviving countrymen Yesterday the remains were buried in the cemetery across the river followed by a large funeral cortege Ere long the bones will be gathered up and sent back to China and deposited in their native soil

A WIFE BEATER.—Wife beating still continues a popular, and, we might add fashionable amusement with some of the inhabitants of the city A gentleman (heaven save the mark) residing in the lower portion of the city, imbibed rather too freely of spirituous inspiration on Tuesday evening Coming home in that beastly condition the drunken wretch began to beat his wife Just when and where the flagellation would have ceased or what the result of the domestic broil would have been is difficult to predict had not a person who fortunately happened to pass been attracted by the outcries of the poor woman He came to the rescue, and being a constable he quietly marched the brute off and had him arrested. Yesterday morning the miserable fellow entered a plea of guilty, and was fined. Such conduct in a civilized and law abiding community! Home missionaries wanted

GOES TO OREGON CITY —Since the arrival of Madame Phelps and her troupe in Portland, the people of Oregon City have extended her a cordial invitation to visit that place and favor the lovers of the drama with one or more entertainments ere they should depart from this city Madame Phelps has signified her acceptance of the kind invitation This (Thursday) evening Oro Fino Theater will be occupied by Governor Gibbs, who is to deliver a political speech Mrs Phelps will improve the opportunity thus afforded, and visit Oregon City "Actress by Daylight" concluding with the splendid farce of "Taraxicum Twitters," will constitute the attractions of the evening We congratulate the theater goers of Oregon City on the amusement in store for them.

DONALD'S BRAVES —The S F Bulletin gets off the following very "sarkastic" paragraph in relation to the Warm Springs braves "Captain McDonald has ensnared six of the dozen Flathead Indians whom he intends converting into lightning soldiers, and will shortly commence operations upon them The precaution of disarming these dusky sons of the forest of knives, tomahawks and other implements of destruction was duly observed by the gallant Captain, hence he can now prance before them and indulge in verbal reflections upon their awkwardness without incurring any great personal risk The braves will appear for the first time in public on the occasion of the coming Fourth of July procession."

CONTRIBUTIONS SOLICITED.—We would again remind persons who desire to make floral donations for Memorial Day—next Saturday—that they should give timely notice to the committee, the names composing which we published in Tuesday morning's issue Notice left with Mr E W Ryan at his office corner of First and Alder streets will be promptly attended to Arrangements have been made to send an express wagon around early on Saturday forenoon and gather up contributions Liberal donations of flowers are respectfully solicited by the committee, There is no danger of getting too many as a profusion of flowers is needed during the ceremonies

CLOTHES THIEF —A thief entered the back yard of Mrs. Crimmons, who resides on Fourth street, on Tuesday night, and stole a number of blankets, sheets, pillow cases etc The lady had placed the clothes out in the back yard to air and neglected to take them in during the evening. Yesterday morning, when she went out to bring the clothes into the house, she found that some accommodating person had saved her the trouble Whoever had stolen the clothes was a very cool headed thief for after taking the articles he had placed all the clothes pins on the door step in a very careful manner, where they were found the following morning.

ACCIDENTS —A little son of a Mr Jones who resides out on G street, met with a painful accident yesterday morning The boy was clambering about the barn which stands near the house, when he slipped and fell from the roof to the ground a distance of ten or twelve feet. The right elbow was dislocated and the boy received several slight bruises about the body A man named McCain was thrown violently from a horse yesterday morning while out riding in the suburbs of the city He sustained severe bruises, and it is thought his shoulder is dislocated.

POLLING PLACES —Certain places were designated by the County Commissioners at their [illegible] changes were made in the boundaries of [illegible] precincts of the city where the polls were to be held. Changes have occurred in some instances, and in others persons who own the premises refuse to allow them to be used for such purposes. The Sheriff is engaged in preparing a list of the voting places The complete list will be published as soon as the list is ready

SEAMAN DIED —On the 15th of April a seaman died on board the bark Matt [illegible] bound from this port for Honolulu His name was Michael Devaney aged about forty years and a native of Ireland The bark sailed from this port on the 3d of April and the sailor's death occurred 9 days out. During the [illegible] customary the body was committed to the keeping of the mighty deep

REPRESENTATIVES CHOSEN —At a meeting of Cosmethe Grove No 4 U A O D held [illegible] day evening the following named P [illegible] were duly elected Representatives to the Grand Grove of California [illegible] Snow Alex Campbell Ward S Stevens H [illegible] and Geo L DeFrans The Grand [illegible] convene at San Francisco on Tuesday June [illegible]

ROWING CLUB —A new rowing club has been organized in this city by a number of young men who have a passion for out door sports The new club will be known as the Star Rowing Club We understand that the members have gone into daily practice with the object in view of entering for the regatta which will probably take place on the 4th of July.

A LAMENTABLE ACCIDENT —Drs Aug C Kinney and Alfred Kinney of this city received a telegram from The Dalles yesterday informing them that their father R C Kinney an old pioneer and proprietor of the Salem Flouring Mills and a most estimable gentleman had the misfortune yesterday morning to meet with an accident by which one of his legs was broken Dr Aug C Kinney left Portland yesterday for the farm on Walla Walla creek where the accident occurred and Dr Alfred Kinney will follow him this morning The numerous friends of the old gentleman in every part of the valley will join with us in regret for the unfortunate occurrence and wishes that he may speedily recover

A SURPRISE —Yesterday was the birthday of Mr Ulrich Warnekros a member of City Rifles The boys knew it and felt that their duty to celebrate the [illegible] A squad of the gallant company took possession of the happy man [illegible] Hors and marched him to the Armory There the boys had a general [illegible] and it was voted that the [illegible] be delegated to set em up We [illegible]

DUE HERE —The steamer Gussie Telfair is now due at this port from Sitka and way ports We presume that in addition to the usual quantities of freight the Gussie Telfair will bring a number of disgusted returning from Stikine

COUNTY COURT —In consequence of the election which will come off on Monday next the County Court will not convene as heretofore Monday being a non judicial day Court will adjourn until Tuesday

GO AND HEAR GOV GIBBS —The speech of Gov Gibbs at Oro Fino Theater to night will be worth hearing Gov Gibbs will tell some plain truths and he may utter some startling facts Let everybody turn out

INSANE —John McKean was found insane on the streets yesterday by Dr A D Hiss, Visiting Physician at the Insane Asylum He was at once removed to the Asylum

THE THEATER.

We have been handed the following intelligent letter written by one of our well known citizens, which we publish He says

The remarks in your valuable paper this morning For months our theater goers have been gasping for amusements and now that there is a company in the city worthy of patronage we hope that it may be supported If it is not patronized then Portland does not deserve to have amusements It is as true in reality as it is welcome to all play goers For a strange company unheralded by either the puff preliminary or the puff implied or the puff oblique or the puff direct to visit our city and present a series of really excellent and spirited performances (as you have pointed out) to such a beggared array of empty benches is surely not less a proof of the apathy of our citizens than of the enterprise of Madame Morgan Phelps and her coadjutors It is not the province of a correspondent but that of your able dramatic critique to dilate upon the manifold points of worth displayed by the small but well organized and drilled company who have been playing here this week but reference may be briefly remarked to the thoroughly efficient character of the acting and sterling ability displayed by the four leading members of the company both male and female. As the Countess D Autreval in Scribes charming comedy Mrs Morgan Phelps is surely par le princeps, but no less satisfactory is Miss Morgan's admirable 'Leonie' Mr Barrow's 'Henri' and Mr Simms 'DeGrignon' It is to be hoped The Ladies' Battle will be fought again before the company leave Portland, as it is without question no less beneficial to the artists than delightful to their audiences, to see such standard comedies as Scribes' 'Planchis' and others Is The Game of Speculation or 'Still Waters Run Deep" beyond the powers of our artist friends? Surely not, Then as the immortal Capt Cuttle observes, If so be, why not At least let us have once more 'The Ladies Battle I enclose my card Yours truly, X.

UNION TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The ladies of the Prayer League occupied seats within the chancel One lady lead in a very fervent prayer and the ladies from all parts of the room participated in the readings and speeches Mr Watkins Sr, said that for 40 years he had been a worker in behalf of temperance and good morals and when the saloon keepers asked what they should do if they discontinued the business he could only recommend the remedy proposed by a lecturer in the Washingtonian times Job hen roosts steal sheep or anything rather than sell liquor His increasing years had taught its wisdom and in view of our high taxes those who make them ought to pay them Mrs Dr Thompson referred to the protection of the law In several instances she had known in her own experience of late Said her taxes were between 36 and 40 mills in Vineland and Greeley they were 14 and 15 for all purposes where liquor was not sold In addition to this certain special street taxes made it much more She did not know what she had done as a good woman that demanded that she should pay 4 cents on the dollar for Mr Medbury remarked that the ocean steamer was in quarantine for one case of pestilence and it would be well if whisky and rum could be put in the same list as enemies of mankind and all the good there is in men The poem read for an absent member of the band commanded the strictest attention, and was a worthy effort of its composer The ladies will have the lights burning again on Friday evening Dr Lindsley has been invited to deliver the lecture on temperance that he recently delivered in Albany and it is hoped he may find it possible to do so

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A large Chinese funeral yesterday

The explosion of a coal-oil lamp in a Chinese house the other evening came near making it hot for the inmates A few buckets of water extinguished the "young fiend"

The new brick building on the levee opposite St Charles Hotel is now being fitted up by Mr. J B Kellogg for a hotel It will be thrown open to the public in about a week

Rev Stephen Bowers, who was pastor of the M E Church at Salem for some time but now a resident of California, has recently discovered so says an exchange in the region of Carmen's Creek Napa county a large deposit of what appears to be good chalk

CAPT SCHULTZ AND THE MISSOURI SENATORSHIP —A Boston dispatch of May 1 th says The Daily Advertiser speaking of the Senatorial question in Missouri calls Senator Schurz an independent statesman and politician who speaks and votes according to his convictions of public duty neither courting the favor of the party to which he owed his election and from which he separated himself nor throwing himself into the arms of the opposition and says

There is room for a great deal of discussion whether, in general, men may accomplish more good by following the fortunes of a party or by a free lance Senator Schurz has decided the question so far as himself is concerned Should he therefore be taught and should the country be given to understand that no man however eminent his abilities however pure his personal character, however high minded his political motives can hope for public honors unless he submits his own opinions not to the test of party principles but to the revision of self constituted leaders? We hope not and yet that is what the rejection of Mr Schurz would mean Some independent politicians are wanted However strongly our party organization may be knit together to have an independent statesman of the character and mental superiority of Carl Schurz is greatly to the advantage of the country He is a Senator of whom any State might be proud however the majority in such State may choose politically to classify itself To pass him by with contempt because he will not pass under the yoke would be a good thing for party discipline, but bad for the country

THE CENTENNIAL COMMISSION —Says a Philadelphia dispatch May 20th The second annual meeting of the United States Centennial Commission was held to-day at the Continental Hotel The Commissioners and Alternates were present from most all the States and Territories The report of the Executive Committee was read It concludes as follows We respectfully submit that without the Government aid which has been requested it will be impossible to render the exhibition creditable to the United States and worthy of the occasion it is intended to commemorate The responsibility therefore for the success of the Centennial International Exhibition now clearly rests with Congress

The Director General reports the number of shares of Centennial stock subscribed for up to May 1 1874 as follows Pennsylvania 1,7 171 Missouri 18 Indiana 31 Illinois 4 Montana 2; Nevada 81, Oregon 540 California 249 Louisiana 129 Florida 25 Maryland 47 Ohio 43 Wisconsin, 62 Michigan 15 Arizona 102 New Jersey 174 Delaware 64 Rhode Island 11 Arkansas, 2 Alabama 33 New York, 1 164 Massachusetts, 272 Vermont 12 West Virginia 5 Georgia 100 Connecticut, 6 District of Columbia 111 Idaho 1 Iowa 1 Kansas, 1 Nebraska 5 Tennessee 1 Texas 5 Prussia 1 Switzerland 25 England 50 Total, 150 520 shares

The estimated total receipts for the Centennial celebration are $10 171 440 and the estimated total expenses $8 750 000, but this includes the million asked for from Congress

A ROMANCE SPOILED —Barbara Fritchie was truly loyal but she never did flap that American flag in the faces of the confeds as they marched into Frederick Maryland Her niece declares so in a communication to the Woman's Journal Barbara was however in some sort a heroine for the same authority has it that one occasion she opened the front door of her house and finding the porch full of rebel soldiers lifted her walking cane and flourishing it over their heads exclaimed

Begone you lousy pack! They immediately begoned In the light of this recent and authentic information we respectfully ask Mr Whittier to respect the sacredness of history and revise his patriotic poem based upon a somewhat exaggerated statement of facts The hero old Quaker wrote

> Shoot if you must this old gray head
> But spare your country's flag she said

We beg that he will change the couplet so that it will read like the following

> Muss if you must the old back shed
> But mustn't muss the porch she said

The spirit of the poem need not necessarily be changed but Barbara's bold though somewhat homely exclamation against the lousy trespassers upon her porch must be poetically treated

THE ESTATE OF OAKES AMES INSOLVENT —BOSTON May 15 —A special dispatch to the Daily Advertiser says that the assets of the estate of the late Oakes Ames have depreciated to such an extent that the executors have concluded to represent the estate as insolvent In the Probate Court of Taunton to day Judge Bennet appointed as commissioners ex Attorney General Charles Allen and Peter Thatcher of Boston and Aaron Hobart Jr of Bridgewater It is believed however that the estate will be able to pay nearly or quite in full with sufficient time to realize from investments many of which are in Southern bonds and stock The estate was currently reported to be worth from $4 000,000 to $5 000 000 at the time of Ames' death

Salmon fishing has not so far been very successful this season Whether they are all caught before reaching here or whether they have not yet come this far up the river the fishermen cannot decide That they are doing but little the river gives them encouragement

The water in the Columbia river is still advancing. It is now three and one half feet higher than it was last year at this time It still lacks about six feet of being as high as it was last year at its highest stage, which was in the middle or latter part of June It is rising now at the rate of some inches in 24 hours This cool weather will undoubtedly check it a little but still the prospects are good for a high stage of water next month

BROOKS AND BAXTER

WHAT GODKIN OF THE "NATION" SAYS OF THEM

(Correspondence of the Nation.)

BROOKS

Asking for an interview with Mr Brooks we were readily passed into the interior of the building. At the door and at the foot of the stairs were negro sentinels very ragged, and wrapped in old blankets, and armed with fowling pieces. We found the Governor No 2 in an inner room, a middle sized man, with a large crop of frowzy hair, a strong rugged face, with a cunning mouth which looked cruel when he showed his teeth, as he did whenever he said anything sarcastic and bitter. He was pale, and evidently nervous, as one might expect a non military man to be who was standing a siege, but there was no doubt entertained of his courage and determination. He had gone down to the barricade with his carbine like the rest when there was talk of an attack. The carbine in question—a sort of pistol with a very long barrel—stood behind his chair, apparently ready for use, and, indeed, pistols and muskets were plentifully distributed in all the rooms. Mr Brooks made us a full statement of his case, but as your readers are already familiar with it I will not repeat it. Suffice it to say that it was highly technical, indeed ludicrously so, considering what the office in dispute was, and he expounded it to us by the aid of illustrations drawn from the New York Code. His main point was that the Legislature and the courts had concurrent jurisdiction over the title to the Governorship, and, the Legislature having declined to exercise it when he presented his petition, the courts were justified in passing on his claim, and had decided in his favor. All he asked now was that the Federal troops should be withdrawn, and then, he said, he would settle the question so that it should not be raised again in fifty years.

BAXTER

Baxter's quarters were in a hotel, which seemed to be entirely given up to him and his followers. Two sentries of the type of men with which either actual service in the field or the sight of rebel prisoners during the war made most people at the North familiar, were at the door. One was about six feet two, straight as an arrow, who shouldered a rifle, and paced up and down in blankets and slouched hat, from under which peered out a pair of dauntless eyes. He looked every inch a soldier, and made one feel that if Baxter had many such followers, Brooks had to thank the President for not having been already eaten without salt. But the other was an old fellow of sixty, with a cough and bent knees, who waved his piece about like a walking stick, and gazed open-mouthed at the passers by. The office was filled with loungers of various sizes, black and white, and we were at once introduced to the commander-in-chief of Baxter's forces, a determined looking gentleman in seedy clothes, who appeared as if he had not undressed for a great many nights, and who carried the stock of a revolver in the hollow of his hand, the barrel being thrust up his sleeve. The staircase was not as well guarded as at Brooks' headquarters, and Mr Baxter's own room, in which he granted audiences, was a small bedchamber, which seemingly had not been swept since the readmission of Arkansas to the Union. The floor was strewed with innumerable bits of paper. Mr Baxter is a man of gigantic size, with a massive face of the Southern type, and a pleasant eye, and the stiff, formal manner with which Southern men keep up their dignity with strangers. He had the same look of having long slept in his clothes as had most of his followers, and, beyond a diamond pin in his shirt-front, wore no personal ornament, and, in fact, carried his simplicity so far as to dispense with a cravat. He was very much more moderate in his tone than Brooks, relying mainly on the fact that he had been recognized by the Legislature, and repeatedly assuring us that if, when that body met again, May 11, it did not confirm him, he would go quietly home. If it did so, on the other hand, and Gen. Grant would take his hands off, he would 'carry on the war vigorously."

A TERRIBLE STORY FROM THE SEA

[From the Manchester Guardian April 30]

Mr Webster, Broughty Ferry, near Dundee, has received a letter from his son, who was second mate of the Clyde ship Irracan, burned at sea on her voyage from Shields to Bombay with coals. The Irracan left Shields on the 11th of September last. On the 14th of February her cargo ignited. On the 20th she was on fire from stem to stern, and the crew were compelled to abandon her. They left in three boats. The first, under the command of the Captain, was picked up by the City of Poonah, and the men were landed at Aden, the gig, commanded by the chief officer, made the land at Cochin; but the pinnace, under the charge of the second mate, Mr Webster, provisioned for only seventeen days, drifted about in the Indian Ocean for thirty-three days until fallen in with by the City of Manchester, and landed at Calcutta. When picked up, the poor fellows were 600 miles from the nearest land, and were in a sad condition. Mr Webster, in his statement, says:

"In addition to myself, there were three men and a boy on board on the 10th of March. The men cast lots as to who should be killed, and the lot fell upon the boy. I would not allow them to kill him, and threatened to shoot the first man who should lay a hand upon him. Things went on this way for two days, when one of the men tried to sink the boat, and said he would have the boy's life in twelve hours. I presented my gun at him, and had no sooner done so than a bird flew over the boat. I fired and killed it. It was instantly secured and devoured, feathers, bones, and all. We subsisted after this on barnacles, which adhered to the sides and bottom of the boat, and on sea blubber, which was ravenously laid hold of as it floated past. Delirious with hunger, one of the men, named Layford, asked to be killed. Another named Davies struck him on the head with a belaying pin. The blood was caught in a tin and eagerly drunk between the two. I threw the tin overboard. The same day these two men fought and bit one another. They then shook hands and laughed and kissed each other like madmen. At last we were, through the mercy of God, picked up by the Capt Hardie, of the City of Manchester, by whom we were very kindly treated and brought to Calcutta."

The surgeon of the steamer which rescued the men says they were in a wretched condition. They could not stand on their feet, their eyes started from their sockets, and they were perfect skeletons. Altogether they presented the most painful sight he ever beheld. The most cautious treatment had to be employed in bringing about their recovery.

TROUBLE AHEAD IN ILLINOIS.—The Administration journals are having a very trying time of it just now. The entrance of the farmers into politics has made them very nervous, and on top of anxiety there comes now an ominous sign of a split in their party ranks. Mention was made a few days ago of an announcement by the Springfield State Journal that the coming Republican Convention would emphatically indorse inflation. This has created a disturbance among those journals which hesitate to desert Grant for Logan and Oglesby. The Quincy Whig says if Grant, in his opposition to inflation, does not represent Republicanism, 'then the platforms and assumptions of the Republican party have heretofore been monstrous frauds, and the utterances of Republican journals have been prodigious lies.' It says that the party must be indivisible on the currency question or go to pieces and it thinks that it does not require much prescience to see that the party which shall venture to set up the standard of repudiation has not long to live in this country. The Ohio Telegraph is equally emphatic in its opposition to the proposition because it would be virtually a declaration of hostility to the Republican organization and an abandonment of the principles by which it got into power.

VANISHED MAIL BAGS.—The Chicago Journal of the 16th inst says: The burning of the mail for New York which left Chicago on Saturday at [illegible] P M by the Pittsburg and Fort Wayne Railroad, is a matter of serious inconvenience to our bankers and business men. The mail contained at least $2,500,000 of drafts, bills of exchange and other remittances to New York. The drafts of large amounts, of which there were several for $100,000 and those between banks can be replaced without much difficulty, but to duplicate the smaller ones, and those bearing several endorsements, will take a great deal of time and trouble. Scores of letters were written by each of the larger banks to-day on this business, and fully six months will elapse before it is fully settled.

THE RISE IN THE THAMES.—The recent high tide in the Thames was so accurately predicted by scientific men that every preparation was made for it. The water rose to the top of the arches of Blackfriars Bridge. A Gloucester paper says that the 'bore' prognosticated by Mr Frank Buckland made its appearance in the Severn at and below Gloucester at 9 in the morning and half past 9 in the evening. The effect was remarkable. The river, which was flowing gently towards the sea was in a moment reversed in its course, and rushed up a mass of waters some feet in height, and throwing mud and water high in the air. The tide only flowed three quarters of an hour and rose less than six feet.

W Thurman's mare 'Bertrand' and John Case's 'Scare Heels' ran a mile race at Boise City last Saturday for $100 a side.

WHERE DOES IT COME FROM.

Pints and quarts of filthy catarrhal discharges. Where does it all come from? The mucous membrane lining the chambers of the nose and its little glands are diseased so that they draw from the blood its liquid and exposure to the air changes it into corruption. This life liquid was to build up the system but it is extracted and the system is weakened by the loss. To cure gain flesh and strength by using Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which also acts directly upon these glands correcting them applying Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy with Dr Pierce's Nasal Douche the only method of reaching the upper cavities where the discharge accumulates and comes from.

Wheat in Liverpool by mail advices from San Francisco 12s 6d[illegible] for average California and 13s [illegible] for club.

We are glad to note the fact of a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in our State as well as on the Pacific coast generally. While the profits on many [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that they justified the rates that have been sustained at [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] our coast [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] there is a large [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a lower rate [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] will begin to spring up in various portions of the State [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] will be utilized and the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] population in other parts of the world. With an increase of manufacturing population will be [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] exist will be enlarged.

A late dispatch from New York says the recent decline of Central Pacific bonds at that place and foreign money centers excited attention. Many rumors were afloat as to the cause. One was that the July interest on the bonds of the California [illegible] [illegible] would go to default and another was that the city of Geneva had thrown $100,000 of bonds on the market part of the bequest of Duke of Brunswick to that place.

A San Francisco paper of the 21st inst says: "Where does all the money come from?" It is getting to be a drug in the market and our savings institutions refuse to receive deposits of over $5,000 because of the difficulty of placing it so as to realize a fair percentage. Nine per cent per year on good security and monthly repayable installment is now the rate, but large sums are loaned at 8 per cent while the commercial banks discount the best business paper for 1 per cent per month.

Crops and Prices.

As prices for grain on this coast are mainly dependent on the European market we collate from our exchanges the following facts in regard to the prospects of crops and prices in that country our latest from London being up to April [illegible]. In London the weekly sales for the week ending April 11th show a decline of 9 [illegible] quarters on those of the same period last year. It is true foreign arrivals have been plentiful but it is equally clear they were wanted and though the early [illegible] supplies from America this season have been [illegible] expectation they had been accumulating in winter and stocks at New York are now so moderate that prices have further improved. There are not many signs as yet of an early harvest for it has lately been colder than in January and vegetation though now making way does so but slowly. Paris has maintained the last moderate advance and the country markets in France Belgium and Holland begin to show signs of exhaustion while the fact that Marseilles with its comparatively high rates has to supply Switzerland and Italy requires no comment to show how these countries are off. In Hungary people are [illegible] to the present rates [illegible] that its consumption has fallen off and millers have therefore obtained a concession of 1s [illegible] [illegible] wheat. At Dantzic too inferior qualities have been so little in demand that the rates have rather given way while fine sorts have slightly advanced with but few offers for England, cost freight and insurance. Other German markets have kept firm as well as Southern Russia and Hamburg with limited arrivals finds it difficult to meet the demand for flour from the interior at full prices. There is nothing therefore in the present stocks here or abroad to justify the expectation of any serious decline though with sudden large arrivals and fine growing weather there may be an occasional depression. All looks well upon the ground at present but not so the difference between farmers and laborers. Yet we hope the dispute will be settled without any danger to the gatherings.

Shipping Intelligence.

Owing to the delay occasioned by her having been placed in quarantine the steamship John L Stephens will probably not be able to sail for San Francisco at the advertised time.

The schooner Dreadnought of the Starpacket line is about due from San Francisco with 100 tons of assorted merchandise.

The steamship California is about due from Sitka and ports this side.

The bark Ceylon has her cargo well on board and will go down the river the latter part of this week.

The bark Melancthon is loaded and at a late hour this evening was lying in the stream opposite the north end sawmills.
